

Baby Brachiosaurus

Maybe this baby is bigger than most, but it's the perfect size for adding friendly dino fun to your school, museum, or themed attraction. Our Baby Brachiosaurus Sculpture is an attention grabber at more than 17 feet long and more than 8 feet tall--it's the kind of piece that draws attention from kids of any age. Constructed from tough material that holds up under rough weather and active kids, this baby Brach is a low-maintenance addition to any themed playground or exhibit.
