

Mifflin Bollard

With an appealing look, super-sturdy construction, and chain loops for space management, the Mifflin Bollard is a multi-functional post ideal for properties like arenas, venues, museums, campuses, and more. We've constructed this with material known for its durability and long service life. It helps safeguard people and property without making the landscape or streetscape look like a fortress or construction site. The Mifflin Bollard is pictured here in the popular concrete finish, which is offered in many colors--our team will even color match existing finishes if needed.
