

Blackwood Illuminated Bollard

Checkers, anyone? Okay, so it might not make a good game board, but the Blackwood Illuminated Bollard is ready to add fun distinction to schools, resorts, attractions, and more. This features a unique design that's sure to attract notice, especially when it illuminates at night. Like all our bollards, the Blackwood helps safeguard parked vehicles, buildings, or pedestrians. It's impact resistant and will withstand nearly anything Mother Nature can dish out. Light this bollard using the illumination of your choice--our consultants can provide more details and answer questions.
