

Corn Post Topper

The Corn Post Topper is a great way for everyone to enjoy their veggies. We have many food sculptures that fit into almost setting: restaurants, gardens, farmer's markets, schools and more. It's perfect to incorporate into play themes such as garden and farm to promote healthy eating. Eating your veggies makes you stronger, as does climbing all over them. You can enjoy it as a post topper in the garden or climb all over our Corn Climber at the park. Our post toppers are created using materials that are durable and resistant to the weather. The pigments and texture will maintain their look for a long time. Explore our garden varieties of fruits and veggies for healthy fun.
