

DC Model Airplane

Some DC-3 transport airliners, created in the 1930s, are still in use today. Some replicas are even part of the exciting playground features that thrill and delight children in theme parks, adventure playgrounds, fun centers and commercial indoor playgrounds. At 15 feet, seven inches long and two feet four inches tall, The 4 Kids DC-3 Model Airplane playground sculpture is an amazingly true to life model of the real thing, just the right size for young theme park enthusiasts to build make believe fantasies to carry them soaring over the playground, while climbing, crawling and balancing to their heart's content. The 4 Kids playground artists and designers create aircraft replicas to fit every theme, from aerospace to military, transportation to historical. Located in Greenville, Texas, all of the impressive playground equipment designs from The 4 Kids are completely American made according to the strictest safety standards. At 14 feet and 5 inches long and 2 feet four inches tall, the design's fiberglass construction ensures a high quality finish for years of low maintenance function.

The 4 Kids was born out of a desire to create high quality, one-of-a-kind park shelters and play environments that effectively appeal to children's natural curiosity and imagination.
