

Fulton Bollard Planter

The Fulton Bollard Planter is an appealing way to add security or mark perimeters without being overbearing. This planter is constructed from material resistant to weather, water, and impact. It's made to last so you can expect a long service life for your investment. The attractive design complements many architectural styles, plus we offer a large color selection -- we'll even color match existing site amenities. Our team will mold the planter to a size that suits your project. This ornamental bollard is ideal for apartment buildings, residential developments, and more.
