

Medieval Castle Tower

This tower gives those young princesses or princes a place to let their imaginations soar. Cast from a durable glass fiber reinforced concrete and molded to model the medieval castles, this tower replicates all that is fanciful from the medieval period. This tower is weather resistant and will last for years to come. The tower is 36" wide and 72" tall. It has a small opening for the children to go in and out of. This tower is great for indoor or outdoor play. Check out our other medieval products that will compliment this tower!
