

Meigs Bollard Planter

From trees that bloom in the spring to decorative branches hung with lights, the Meigs Bollard Planter is a classic addition to any streetscape or landscape, including hospitals, municipal buildings, and plazas. The design is visually interesting without being fussy, so you can highlight greenery and accents. But this is more than an attractive planter. The Meigs is a fully functional security bollard able to divert traffic, protect pedestrians, and safeguard entryways. We use only architectural-grade materials that deliver many years of resilient service.
