Do you need a sign display that really makes customers sit up and take notice, something that is eye catching as well as elegant and sets just the right tone for your business, community or commercial location, something really, really special? The 4 Kids has a sign structure design for you, ideal for kicking up the level of ornamentation at your venue, whether it's a university library or a upscale restaurant, a tourist destination or a courthouse, a country club or a military installation, the possibilities for placement are endless. Ornate and intricately crafted, this beautiful sign creation from the talented artists in our Greenville, Texas studios will welcome revelers to your club, patients to your clinic or students to your classes with style and flair. Beside exceptional artistry, featuring a mesmerizing frame within frame design, the sign structure is going to retain its high quality finish and tough exterior for years, thanks to glass fiber reinforced concrete construction for weather-resistant durability and virtually no maintenance. Available in 3, 4, 5 or 6 feet heights, sign structures can also be mounted on 1 foot 3 inch brick bases.
