

Sign 24

A sign that promises to attract attention from all patrons. This excellent design structure from The 4 Kids in Greenville, Texas is a regal and magnificent welcome to your visitors. This sign is crafted with an arched crown, flanked by stately pillars presenting a wide text area for displaying a proper welcome to patients at medical facilities, students at universities, visitors to museums and galleries, tourists at theme parks and resorts or customers at shopping malls. The design is charming to all, especially maintenance staff, who find the glass fiber reinforced concrete finish virtually maintenance free in all weather, perfect for location outdoors as well as indoors. Even the salty spray of the sea does no damage to this superior finish for years of dependable and durable service. Available in 3, 4, 5 or 6 feet versions, the sign may or may not be mounted on an attractive brick base for an extra foot and 3 inches. Do you have an idea for sign structure features that would work well in your location? Contact the experts at The 4 Kids today.
