

Small Whale Climber

Are you ready to surf the waves with this rocking Whale by your side? We are. This Small Whale Climber is perfect for little ones age 2 and up. They can climb and run circles around him for hours of pretend play. We also have a larger whale climber for older children. Everything that we make is customizable to fit your needs. This climber has a natural look, but can also be painted using more realistic colors. Complete with his own wave, smiling face, blowhole, and fins, this Baby Whale is ready to play! Great for parks, children's museums and splash pads. Spraying all the children with water coming straight from the top of the blowhole, everyone will have tons of fun.
