

Velociraptor Fossil Dig

Velociraptors were fierce and fast. Rare it is to find such a fine specimen. With this Velociraptor Fossil Dig, you may just get lucky enough to unearth quite the piece. Give children the experience of exploration with their own fossil dig extraction. We offer many different prehistoric creatures to find. This piece is 6 feet long by almost 4 feet wide. Plenty of space for several children to work together. This feature provides education through hands-on learning, developing social skills through interaction and enlightening their imagination and problem solving skills. Dinosaurs roamed the Earth millions of years ago, and the fascination with every archaeological dig still lives strong. Bring this excitement to your museum exhibits and schools to expand your lesson plans and their minds.
